

Pat McGainey

Superior Performance

Pat McGainey was born October 31st, 1978, to his parents Pat McGainey Sr and Roxanne McGainey in Essex, Maryland

He has two sisters Jennifer and Patricia. Pat has been married for 23 years to his wife Laurie. They have two children 22-year-old Patrick III and 20-year-old Jordan. Pat grew up in Crown Lanes in Essex where his grandparents, aunts, uncles and parents all bowled. After many years of being in the bowling alley and practicing a lot with his dad before his leagues started, around the age of 12 he joined the Saturday morning junior league at that center.

At the age of 17 pat needed his parent's consent to join the Friday night industrial adult league, it was granted, and his journey began. Pat bowled in 5 leagues his second year in adult and that's where he shot his first 300 game. Since then he has gone on to shoot many 300 games and 800 sets. Other than the 300 games and 800 sets, the Saturday night Weekend Warriors league was special because that is where he met his wife. Pat became a Hammer staff member over 10 years ago and that has been a big part in his success and accomplishments, it also helped him to capture high average in the GBBA for a single season several times. To this day he enjoys bowling with his family and all his friends.
