

Emily Tull

Superior Performance

Youth Stars of Tomorrow

Emily Tull is a 20 yrs. old sophomore at the University of Pikeville. She is the daughter of Kenneth Tull and Aneatra Hepner and the granddaughter of Jackie Tull. Emily is currently majoring in social work and psychology at the University of Pikeville. Making the Dean's list with a 3.5 last semester.

Emily started bowling at the age of eight in the Shot Makers youth sport shot league. Then a few years later she joined the Saturday Youth League at Brunswick zone Perry Hall. Being coached first by Maryland USBC Hall of Famer Chrissy Bennett. Then later being coached by PBA Hall of Famer Danny Wiseman.

Throughout her youth career she has won titles in the Greater Baltimore USBC the Maryland State USBC and on the collegiate level. With some highlights being:

Pepsi State Final's.

2016-5th place
2017-5th place
2018-1st place

Youth Championship:

All Events U20 Girls Scratch
2016-3rd
2017-4th
2018-1st

High Average Invitational

2018-3rd

600 Tournament

2017-1st

Collegiate level

All-Tournament Team (JV) - Louisville Classic 28th -132 bowlers.
All-Tournament team (JV) -Burris Memorial 14th - 124 bowlers.
All-Tournament Team (JV) - Orange and Black 8th out of 255 Bowlers.
Won the JV Division.
Brunswick Southern Classic Tier 1 - 5th - 143 bowlers.
All-Tournament Team for Varsity.
All-Tournament Team for (JV) - Raider Classic 12th - 188 bowlers.

Unfortunately she was injured after only five tournaments into her freshman year. Here is hoping for bigger and better things for this upcoming year.

She would like to thank the following. Shot Makers Pro Shop, Kevin Mumpower, Chrissy Bennett, Danny Wiseman, Her Grandmother Jackie Tull and last but not least her Father Kenneth Tull. She would like to thank the Maryland State USBC for this award.

